Re: SkillsUSA Georgia

GREETINGS,

It is a pleasure to join the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau in welcoming you to Georgia and the State Leadership and Skills Conference.

Allow me to welcome your distinguished guests and their families to our Capital. Atlanta is a beautiful city providing many attractions, including fine dining, historic sites, and many unique recreational activities. We hope you have the opportunity to enjoy Atlanta while you are here, and experience the hospitality that is so much a part of our everyday life.

Thank you, SkillsUSA Georgia for organizing this event and extend my best wishes for a successful and enjoyable event.

Sincerely,

Nathan Deal

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

GEORGIA WEEK OF CHAMPIONS

WHEREAS: The prosperity of Georgia and our nation rests upon the skills of our young adults and citizens. Many academic programs are continually implemented to develop these skills, and are embraced by the youth, communities, and citizens of our state; and

WHEREAS: Georgia's high-performance students are enrolled in career and technical education programs which provide quality educational experiences for students in leadership, teamwork, and character development; and

WHEREAS: Career and technical education programs offered by high schools in conjunction with programs such as SkillsUSA help build and reinforce self-confidence, work attitudes, and communications skills as well as emphasize total quality at work - high ethical standards, superior work skills, life-long education, and pride in the dignity of work; and

WHEREAS: These programs aim to help Georgia's high school students become world-class workers and responsible citizens of our nation; now

THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 13-19, 2011, as the WEEK OF CHAMPIONS in Georgia and urge all of our citizens to join in recognizing the contributions made by the students involved in career and technical education in our state.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 22nd day of February in the year of our Lord two thousand eleven.
