

Contest Updates:

Architectural Drafting Display – This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Automotive Brakes – A hands-on contest component is being developed for this contest so that it will include a test and a live contest. Complete guidelines will be published on the SkillsUSA Georgia website when completed.

Automotive Electronics/Ignition - A hands-on contest component is being developed for this contest so that it will include a test and a live contest. Complete guidelines will be published on the SkillsUSA Georgia website when completed.

Career Cluster Showcase – New name for Tech Prep showcase

Construction Technology Display– This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Cosmetology Hair Design Display– This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Cosmetology Nail Design Display– This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Criminal Justice Quiz Bowl – Contest Guidelines have been updated

Electrical Construction Wiring– New Name for Residential Wiring

Engine Builders Team – New event

Green YOUR School – New contest - must have registered earlier in the year and received training to compete in this event.

Mechanical Drafting Display – This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Metal Working Display– This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.

Pin Design – This contest is a National contest and it requires an interview as well as designing a pin. Refer to the Technical Standards for Pin Design guidelines. The 1st and 2nd place winners at region will advance to the State Conference and the 1st place winner at State Conference will advance to the National Conference.

SkillsUSA Georgia Pin Design – This is a Georgia only contest. Schools may enter more than one student in this contest and the student may also enter a national contest as well. There is not an interview portion and the winner does not advance to nationals. Complete contest details can be found here: <http://skillsusageorgia.org/ch-state-gaonlyguidelines.htm>

SkillsUSA Georgia T-Shirt - This is a Georgia only contest. Schools may enter more than one student in this contest and the student may also enter a national contest as well. There is not an interview portion and the winner does not advance to nationals. Complete contest details can be found: <http://skillsusageorgia.org/ch-state-gaonlyguidelines.htm>

T-shirt - This contest is a National contest and it requires an interview as well as designing a T-shirt. The 1st and 2nd place winners at region will advance to the State Conference and the 1st place winner at State Conference will advance to the National Conference. Contest guidelines can be down loaded here: <http://skillsusa.org/downloads/PDF/contests/TShirt.pdf>

Woodworking Display– This contest has been updated so that either an individual student or a team may compete in this contest.