

SkillsUSA Georgia Code of Behavior

1. Teachers/advisors will assume full responsibility that delegates abide by the SkillsUSA Georgia dress code and code of behavior at all times including travel to and from conference.
2. Participants shall be prompt and prepared for all activities. All delegates shall behave in a courteous manner and refrain from language and/or actions that could bring discredit upon them, their school and/or SkillsUSA Georgia. Delegates should wear name badges at all times except in sleeping quarters.
3. Delegates shall be fully clothed at all times outside of living quarters. This includes movement between rooms.
4. Delegates agree not to consume or have in possession any alcoholic beverages or non-prescription narcotics, gamble, smoke or use other tobacco products during the conference.
5. Conduct not conducive to an educational conference will not be tolerated. Examples of unacceptable conduct includes, but is not limited to, disrupting a businesslike atmosphere, consorting with non-conference individuals or any activities which will endanger self or others.
6. Delegates are expected to attend all general sessions. Student participants shall not leave the hotel premises without the permission from their advisor. Delegates shall keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
7. Delegates shall observe the curfew hour. It is the responsibility of the teacher/advisor to ensure compliance with this article.
8. Delegates shall refrain from all types of roughhousing including dropping articles out of the windows. Delegates understand that girls' hotel rooms are off limits to boys and boys' rooms are off limits for girls unless an advisor is present. Chapters found in violation will be asked to leave.
9. Delegates agree to pay for all phone calls made from their rooms. These will be shown on individual bills and paid for by the local chapter or chapter members.
10. Delegates shall respect the hotel property of which they are a guest and will pay for any property damage or loss that occurs due to their stay during the conference.
11. Delegates shall not use portable stereos or other loud music making devices outside their rooms and will keep the volume low while they are in rooms.
12. Participants violating any of the rules of conduct will subject their entire delegation to be unseated.
13. Participants may be sent home at their own expense for violating any of these rules of conduct. Violators (and their chapter) may be suspended for one year.

It is hoped that each student attending the conference will take this Code of Behavior with a positive attitude so that SkillsUSA Georgia will continue to have the respect of education, business people and the general public.
